Community Health Center Names Dental Director

Mashpee – John Mancini, DDS, has joined Community Health Center of Cape Cod as Director of Dental Services. He is currently developing program guidelines and hiring staff for the new dental service, which is expected to start in July. Once the program begins, he will oversee all aspects of the dental services that are provided at the Health Center.

Dr. Mancini is experienced in the community health setting. Prior to joining the Health Center he was the dental director at Mid-Upper Cape Community Health Center and the Ellen Jones Community Dental Center in Harwich. He helped to create the Cape Cod Dentists Care program, a voluntary group that provides low-cost dental services to the uninsured. Before moving to the Cape, he created a children's sealant program and established a dental clinic in Fitchburg, MA. He was also in private practice for 27 years.

Dr. Mancini obtained his dental degree from Georgetown University School of Dentistry. He serves on the dental externship faculty at Boston University and Harvard University and is the Chairman of the Tri-County Coalition for Oral Health Excellence.

Dr. Mancini and his wife live in Chatham. They have three children.

Community Health Center of Cape Cod is a non-profit Federally Qualified Health Center that provides access to health care for adults and children with MassHealth, Commonwealth Care, Medicare, private insurance, or no insurance at all. Services include primary and preventive care, behavioral health, coordinated case management, and prescription assistance, at locations in Falmouth and Mashpee.
