Health Center Names Family Resource Center Clinicians

Bourne – Community Health Center of Cape Cod has named James P. McGuire, MD and Lisa K. Tager, LICSW to the clinical staff of the Family Resource Center for Behavioral Health.

Dr. McGuire is a child psychiatrist. He received his medical degree from Boston University School of Medicine and completed residencies in psychiatry at University of Cincinnati, University of Cincinnati Medical Center; University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia Child Guidance Clinic at Philadelphia General Hospital; and Brown University, Butler Hospital. Dr. McGuire, who is board certified in psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry, is also on the staff at Gosnold/Thorne Counseling Center.

Ms. Tager is a clinical social worker. She is a graduate of Cornell University and holds a masters degree in social work from New York University. She also obtained a law degree from New England School of Law. She comes to the Health Center from Rutland, Vermont where she was the Director of Social Work at Rutland Regional Medical Center for the past 6 years. She has many years of clinical and administrative experience and has served on many Boards of Directors for free clinics, schools and community organizations.

The Family Resource Center provides child psychiatry; child, adolescent and family counseling; assessment; and referral services to children and young people up to age 23 and their families.

Community Health Center of Cape Cod is a non-profit Federally Qualified Health Center that provides access to health care for adults and children with MassHealth, Commonwealth Care, Medicare, private insurance, or no insurance at all. Services include primary and preventive care, dental care, behavioral health, coordinated case management, and prescription assistance, at locations in Falmouth, Mashpee and Bourne.
