Singer-Songwriter Patty Larkin in Concert Benefit Event for Falmouth Family Planning

Falmouth –On the heels of the release of her 11th album, “Watch the Sky”, singer-songwriter Patty Larkin will perform a benefit concert for Falmouth Family Planning on Friday, April 11 at the Lawrence School in Falmouth. Falmouth Family Planning provides confidential and affordable health services, education and counseling for women and men, adults and teens. It is a program of Community Health Center of Cape Cod.

Ms. Larkin’s latest release is a collection of 12 original compositions, which she wrote, played and produced. She performed on acoustic, electric and baritone guitars, lap steel, National steel, banjo, bass, bazouki, toy organ, and door chimes, and created sounds including folk, soul, blues, and Middle Eastern rhythms.

The concert will take place at 8 PM on Friday, April 11, at the Lawrence School at 113 Lakeview Avenue in Falmouth. Tickets for the concert are $25. They are available at Puritan of Cape Cod stores, Coffee Obsession and Eight Cousins Bookstore in Falmouth and at Falmouth Family Planning at 210 Jones Road, Suite 22, in Homeport in Falmouth. Tickets will also be available at the door.

For more information about the concert, call Megan Luizzi at 508-540-2949.

Falmouth Family Planning provides health services, education and outreach services to women and men, adults and teens. It is a program of Community Health Center of Cape Cod, a Federally Qualified Health Center that provides access to health care for uninsured and underserved residents of Cape Cod.
